Because of the coronavirus pandemic, we have been closed at St. Paul the Apostle Church in Peotone, IL for already over two months. The sacraments we should be receiving have not been administered. I believe we both, myself and you, are very frustrated about it. We all hope this will change soon. In the meantime, before we will be able to come to church in bigger numbers, I'd like to start preparing ourselves through the Sacrament of Reconciliation (individual Confession).

Here is what I ask you to do:

You will have to call our office (708 258-6917 Noon to 5pm, or leave a message) and schedule the time you would like to come for individual Confession, according to my availability, which is as follows:

Starting Saturday, May 23, 2020

Saturday and Sunday 11:30am--12:30pm

Monday through Friday: 10:30am--11:30am and 5:00pm--6:00pm

At your scheduled appointment, please, remember:

1. Wear a face mask;
2. Use our new main entrance;
3. Use hand sanitizer before entering;
4. Unless I am already waiting for you, please sit down in the designated chairs and wait for your appointment;
5. You may stay in the church for a couple of minutes, but keep at least six feet distance from other people.

Please use this opportunity to catch up with the time we lost.

May the Lord Jesus and Blessed Virgin Mary keep you safe and in peace.

Rev. Roger D. Kutzner

Pastor
